ORDER FOR PERMANENT INJUNCTION
AND FINES

Now on this 1st day of February, 2010, comes the Court for consideration of the Motion for Default Judgment and the Amended Complaint filed by the Plaintiff against the Defendant, Fidelity National Legal Services, Inc. The Plaintiff appears by and through Scott S. Freydl, staff attorney for the Arkansas Securities Department. The Defendant, Fidelity National Legal Services, Inc., fails to appear although duly and properly served with notice of the Amended Complaint and Motion. From the pleadings, documentary evidence, the testimony of witnesses and all other matters properly before the Court, the COURT DOTH FIND AND ORDER:

1. This Court has jurisdiction and venue over the parties and the subject matter involved herein.

2. This Court has the authority to issue a temporary and permanent injunction or restraining order against the Defendant, Fidelity National Legal Services, Inc., pursuant to Ark.

Code Ann. § 23-39-514(l) and A.R.C.P. Rule 65.

3. The Court finds that the Defendant, Fidelity National Legal Services, Inc., and its employees have solicited, offered, and engaged in mortgage loan activity with one Arkansas resident in violation of Arkansas Code Ann. §§ 23-39-503(b) and 23-39-503(c).

4. The Court finds that residents of the State of Arkansas will be irreparably harmed by the activities of the Defendant, Fidelity National Legal Services, Inc. Further, the harm to the residents of the State of Arkansas far outweighs the harm that could be done the Defendant, Fidelity National Legal Services, Inc., by the entry of an Order for Permanent Injunction. Therefore, the Court hereby enters an Order of Permanent Injunction against the Defendant, Fidelity National Legal Services, Inc. Said Defendant is permanently enjoined from soliciting, offering or engaging in mortgage loan activity in the State of Arkansas.

5. Pursuant to Arkansas Code Ann. § 23-39-514(1)(3) the Court hereby finds and orders the Defendant, Fidelity National Legal Services, Inc., to pay a fine to the Arkansas Securities Department in the amount of $10,000.00.

IT IS SO ORDERED on this 1st day of February, 2010.
