

STATE OF ARKANSAS SECURITIES DEPARTMENT

IN THE MATTER OF

ORDER PROVIDING A
TRANSACTIONAL EXEMPTION
FROM REGISTRATION

J & R CONSTRUCTION & EXCAVATION, INC.

NO. 02-024-S

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On September 18, 2002, a letter was received by the Arkansas Securities Commissioner requesting that the proposed offering and sale of 74 shares of the issued and outstanding capital stock (the "Stock") of J & R Construction & Excavation, Inc. (the "Company") to Kayla Y. Cole and Russell R. Huckaby be determined to be an exempt transaction pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. Section 23-42-504 (a) (12).
2. The Company is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Arkansas. The Stock consists of Seventy Four (74) shares of common stock, owned by Jeffery L. Cole (the "Seller"). The Company presently has 100 shares of common stock issued and outstanding.
3. The Buyers will be Kayla Y. Cole (25 shares) and Russell R. Huckaby (49 shares).
4. An exemption from registration has been requested pursuant to the Commissioner's discretionary authority under Ark. Code Ann. Section 23-42-504 (a) (12). The Seller and the Buyers have fully and completely been involved in the negotiation of an agreement for the sale of the Stock, and they have had the opportunity to be represented in these negotiations by counsel. The Buyers have had access to financial and other information concerning the Company as is necessary to make an informed investment decision. Based upon the foregoing, the Transaction is not the type the Arkansas Securities Act (the " Act") is designed to protect by requiring registration, particularly when what is involved is the sale of a business.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Under Section 23-42-504 (a) (12) of the Act, the Commissioner may by order exempt certain transactions from Section 23-42-501 and 23-42-502 of the Act as not being necessary or appropriate in the public interest for the protection of investors.
2. It is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest for the protection of investors for the Seller to be required to register the Transaction under the Act for the purposes of the contemplated offering.
3. It is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest for the protection of investors for the Seller to be required to engage the services of a registered agent for the purpose of making sales of the Company's securities.

OPINION

In recognition of the representations made by the Seller and the Buyers, it appears registration of this offering of shares of common stock is unnecessary in this instance.

This order does not exempt the parties from the antifraud provisions of the Act.

ORDER

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that any securities of the Company offered or sold in Arkansas for the proposed Transaction, if offered and sold in compliance with the representations made in the letter dated September 17, 2002 and in accordance with the Findings of Fact stated herein, shall be exempted from Sections 23-42-501 and 23-42-592 of the Act.

WITNESS MY HAND AND SEAL this 24th day of September, 2002.
