Casebolt, an officer, director, or employee of the Issuer, petitioned the Arkansas Securities Commissioner (“Commissioner”) to waive the Securities Industry Essentials Examination (“SIE Exam”) and the specialized knowledge examination requirements for their registration as an agent of the Issuer. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

10. Pursuant to Ark. Code. Ann. § 23-42-302(a)(2), the Commissioner may by order approve a limited agent registration with such limitations, qualifications, or conditions as the Commissioner deems appropriate.

11. In order to be registered as an agent, the Rules require that an agent pass the SIE Exam and a specialized knowledge exam appropriate to their job function. 23 CAR § 300-302(c)(2)(B). In addition, the Rules state that “[a]gent applicants must also pass the Series 63 or Series 66 exam that addresses state law.” 23 CAR § 300-302(c)(2)(C).

12. Pursuant to Rules, the Commissioner may waive any or all of the examination requirements for registration as an agent of the issuer based upon the limited time, amount, or nature of the issue or transaction involved, or the specific circumstances unique to the applicant. 23 CAR 300-302(c)(7).

13. Based upon the representations made by Casebolt, it is appropriate to waive the SIE Exam and specialized knowledge exam requirements and approve a limited registration as an agent of the issuer.

ORDER

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the application of Stacy Casebolt for registration as an agent of The Solomon Foundation is hereby approved as a limited registration provided that Casebolt only represent The Solomon Foundation in effecting or attempting to effect sales of securities and that they are not and will not be compensated in connection with the offer and sale of The Solomon Foundation securities by the payment of commissions or other remuneration that is based on transactions in securities. BEFORE THE ARKANSAS SECURITIES COMMISSIONER

IN THE MATTER OF:

Stacy Casebolt, Applicant

AFFIDAVIT

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Stacy Casebolt, who being of sound mind and legal age, and after being duly sworn, deposes and states as follows:

1. I, Stacy Casebolt as a Retirement Operations Representative at The Solomon Foundation (“TSF”), petition the Arkansas Securities Commissioner to waive the Securities Industry Essential and FINRA specialized knowledge examination requirement under Rule 302.01(c)(1) for my registration as agent of TSF.

2. On or about November 27, 2023, I passed the Series 63 examination.

3. I am currently successfully registered in Alabama, Delaware, Maryland, Nevada, New Jersey, Oklahoma, Oregon, Utah, Virginia and Washington. In addition to Arkansas, I am in the process of becoming registered in Nebraska and West Virginia. I am also engaged in sales of TSF securities in numerous other states based on applicable exemptions from agent registration or where there are no registration requirements.

4. TSF is a Colorado nonprofit corporation that was incorporated to provide a variety of services to independent Christian Churches, Churches of Christ, or other autonomous churches or church ministries adhering to the beliefs and religious principles of the Restoration Movement Christian Churches and Churches of Christ. Part of those services include making loans to independent Christian Churches, Churches of Christ, or other autonomous churches or church ministries adhering to the beliefs and religious principles of the Restoration Movement Christian Churches and Churches of Christ, or in any religious organization that has a programmatic relationship with any of the foregoing from funds obtained through the issuance of debt securities (“Certificates”). TSF is presently exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), from taxation under Subtitle A thereof, is not a “private foundation” under Section 509 of the Code, and is organized and operated exclusively for religious, educational, benevolent and charitable purposes. No part of the net earnings of TSF inures to the benefit of any person or individual. TSF, as a nonprofit corporation, does not have any shareholders. TSF has two corporate members, Crossroads Christian Church (Grand Prairie, TX) and Christ's Church of the Valley (Peoria, AZ), each of whom may select one director to serve on TSF's Board of Directors.

5. I am an officer, director, or other employee of TSF who performs significant functions for TSF other than effecting or attempting to effect the sale of securities. I have developed solid experience with and am adequately qualified to transact TSF's business in Arkansas, as I do in numerous other states, and respectfully request that I not be required to take an additional Series examination to be permitted to be registered as an agent in Arkansas. I participate in ongoing annual training with respect to the Patriot Act and securities best practices.

6. As a Retirement Operations Representative, I assist in administering TSF's Retirement Department. I maintain broad understanding and working knowledge of Retirement industry changes and requirements, assisting with implementation of and updates or changes associated. I also assist the Investments team to assess TSF clients' retirement-based needs and explain retirement product characteristics and benefits. More specifically, I assist with administration of trust account portfolios and record keeping; provide asset information to beneficiaries on behalf of the trust; consult with the Investments team and clients to resolve issues and respond to client requests; assist with legal notification requirements; perform and assist others with transactions on trust accounts; assist with resolution of IRA requests; assist in reviewing incoming form and transaction requests in accordance with IRA regulations; provide daily communication with co-workers, clients, investors, agencies, advisors, and other investment personnel on options concerning trusts and estate matters.

7. I represent only TSF in effecting or attempting to effect sales of securities and will offer and sell only securities issued by TSF.

8. TSF's offering as a religious nonprofit corporation is limited in nature, in that it is restricted to its limited class of investors pursuant to its offering circular. Therefore, I only will sell securities to a limited class of investors in connection with this church extension fund. TSF is exempt from registration with the SEC under Section 3(a)(4) of the federal Securities Act of 1933.

9. It is the practice of TSF that all transactions by its agents are reviewed and approved by another registered agent before processing.

10. I will receive no compensation or similar remuneration either directly or indirectly in connection with the offer and sale of TSF securities.

11. I swear and affirm that I know the contents of this affidavit signed by me and that the statements are true and correct.

DATED this 30 day of April, 2026.
